Rules and Regulations

General conduct Policies

-All attendees are expected to follow University of California campus policy regarding general behavior and conduct. No weapons, nudity, or drinking on the grounds of the convention is allowed.

-Building Policy does not allow large groups to congregate in hallways, for this reason please refrain from lingering and photography in hallways. Noisy groups will be asked to move into the main hall. Some areas of the building are off limits; these areas are marked on the Con Map. In case of confusion please defer to con staff for directions.

-According to official university regulations, alcoholic beverages and tobacco products may not be advertised or promoted either (a) on the Berkeley campus or (b) at off-campus activities or events sponsored by campus units or campus-recognized groups and attended by students. Campus-recognized groups include organizations of students, employees, or alumni that are registered with the campus or that use the name of either the University of California or the Berkeley campus.

-Moreover, Anime Destiny will not tolerate any consumption or possession of alcoholic beverages by any attendee while at the convention. All infringements upon this regulation will be reported to the appropriate legal and University administrative authorities.

-Lewd or sexually offensive conduct, including indecent exposure and public nudity, is not permitted on campus. This applies to all public areas of the campus except for specifically designated "clothing optional areas" at gymnasiums, pools, or other areas. It applies to all persons, including students, employees, and visitors, except for babies and young children. The policy does not apply to individuals or groups participating in appropriate visual or performing arts productions or academic programs or classes, although whenever possible, members of the public should be informed that nudity may be included in the performance.

-All members of the campus community are encouraged to contact the Title IX Compliance Coordinator (Sexual Harassment Officer) if they observe or encounter conduct that may be subject to the University's Policy on Sexual Harassment. Reports of sexual harassment may be brought to the Title IX Compliance Coordinator, to a human resources coordinator, or to any manager, supervisor, or other designated employee responsible for responding to reports of sexual harassment. If the person to whom harassment normally would be reported is the individual accused of harassment, reports may be made to another manager, supervisor, human resources coordinator, or designated employee. Managers, supervisors, and designated employees are required to notify the Title IX Compliance Coordinator when a report is received.

CosPlay Policies

-All costumes must be decent to wear in public.

-All props must be cleared with ConOps

-Please refrain from reckless use of props. If a problem is reported to convention staff, your prop will be confiscated. If, at any time, convention staff finds your costume inappropriate in any way, you will be politely asked to change out of the costume. An inappropriate costume is one that fails to meet decency standards, blocks hallways, or causes staff or other attendees to have valid complaints. Failure to comply with a staff request will result in the revocation of your badge. Your registration will not be refunded, and you will be escorted from the convention grounds.

If we confiscate your costume materials, they will be held at Con-Ops for you to pick up later.

-Mock up weapons will be inspected and peace bonded by ConOps via a string.

Badge Policy

Please note the following:

- Badges are not transferable.
- Lost badges can be replaced at the registration desk for $5.
- We reserve the right to refuse admission to anyone.

Please print and sign this form in order to prove that you have read, understood, and agreed to comply with all convention regulations and policies.
