

Anime Destiny 2010 Fighting Game Tournament Rules + Schedule

Super Smash Brothers Brawl (11AM-1PM)

Super Street Fighter IV (1PM-3PM)

Blazblue: Continuum Shift (3PM-5PM)

Finals (5PM-7PM)

- Sign-ups are 20 minutes in the beginning of the scheduled tournament time.
- Food or drink are allowed in tournament room, but please, wash your hands before playing.
- Trash talking should be kept at a minimum. Audience cheers are encouraged.
- If you sign-up for a specific tournament, please stay long enough so you're not late for you match.
- The three games showcased are: (in the order they're going to be played) Super Smash Brothers Brawl (Wii), Street Fighter IV (PS3/Xbox360), and Blazblue (PS3/Xbox360).
- The format is 16 people single elimination. If there are more people, we may increase the size of the tournament.
- After a tournament's over, if there are still time left in the 2 hour allotted block it'll be informal free play.
- Hardware issues mean instant rematch. Pausing the game during a match means that round is forfeited.
- The final matches will be played at 5PM in Tilden.
- Winners will be awarded a prize after the finals.

Super Smash Brothers Brawl (11AM-1PM)

- The format for SSBB will be one-on-one matches.
- You have a choice between a Gamecube controller or a Wiimote+Nunchuck.
- 4 stock, 5 minute time limit.
- Items will be OFF, with the exception of Final Smashes.
- Battlefield, Final Destination, and Smashville are the three permissible stages.
- Final match will be a 3-set match, meaning that in order to win, you have to win 2 sets.

Super Street Fighter IV (1PM-3PM)

- The format for SSFIV will be one-on-one matches.
- You have a choice between an Xbox360 controller, a PS3 controller, or one of the provided arcade sticks. Feel free to bring in your own arcade stick.
- Best of 5 rounds format, 99 second time limit, default damage/handicap.
- Final match will be a best of 2 game match, with best of 3 rounds. (Thus allowing for the loser to change his/her character)

Blazblue: Continuum Shift (3PM-5PM)

- The format for Blazblue will be one-on-one matches.
- You have a choice between an Xbox360 controller, a PS3 controller, or one of the provided arcade sticks. Feel free to bring in your own arcade stick.
- Best of 5 rounds format, 99 second time limit, default damage/handicap.
- Final match will be best of 2 game match, with best of 3 rounds. (Thus allowing for the loser to change his/her character)

Finals (5PM-7PM)